

CVS417/88.29

ENTS.

Not Be

Cooke's
to hear ecture on
Potts
ev. Dr. s with riptides.
or, then er usual
s intro-n as the forward, tend to lk with but a n things nd under had been he was opalian, e had, in the two egation"
birth of ough dise original

art amongst the
ld be a dili-
or a locality opening for not to in-mination, but
el. A congress
e world with Having got question was vices were to deration here
which men ord so that esus Christ
s. The lec-
buildings
be dese-
By these be intro-
would do also was t, in many ion on the might be arious com-
with their should be
be treated ation. The actical and managing church. The rible chasm
ke the poor
eir distress.
he Sunday
choir and sters, and,
ive in sub-
to the land. Mr. Baxter settled the trouble by binding both women over to keep the peace for a period of 12 months.

DR. WILLIAM OSLER

Presented with an Address by His Medical Friends in Toronto.

A number of the prominent members of the medical profession of the city gathered in the library of the College of Physicians and Surgeons' building yesterday morning to do honor to an old and esteemed friend, one who stands pre-eminent in his calling, and occupies perhaps the highest position attainable among the surgeons of the entire continent—Dr. William Osler—the chief medical officer of the Johns Hopkins hospital, and a professor in the Johns Hopkins University. Present among others were: Dr. Halford Walker, Dr. A. A. Macdonald, Dr. Grasett, Dr. Burrill, Dr. Cameron, Dr. Scadding, Dr. Graham, Dr. Burnham, Dr. Oldright, Dr. Primrose, Dr. Baines, Dr. Temple, Dr. Richardson, Dr. Thorburn, Dr. Wright, Dr. Machell, Dr. Powell, Dr. Dickson, Dr. Mackenzie, Dr. O'Reilly, Dr. Reeve and Dr. Carveneth. Expressions of regret for their inability to attend were received from many others. Dr. Halford Walker read an address worded thus:

To William Osler, M.D.

DEAR SIR.—We desire, on behalf of a number of your medical friends in Toronto, to offer you our congratulations on your marriage, and to express our best wishes for Mrs. Osler and yourself. We have watched with pride your successful career as a physician, a teacher and an author in Canada and the United States. Your departure from the land of your birth caused us deep regret, but never diminished our interest in your success. It matters not where you may reside, we will ever rejoice in your prosperity, and if in the future you decide to come back to us, we will gladly give you a hearty welcome.

(Signed) ADAM H. WRIGHT,
C. O'REILLY,
F. L. W. GRASETT,
ALBERT A. MACDONALD,
T. E. GRAHAM,
HALFORD WALKER,
Committee.

Toronto, May 16, 1892.

Dr. Grasett thereupon presented Dr. Osler with a handsome bronze inkstand of elegant design, and a beautiful silver-handled paper-knife. Dr. Osler replied with a few remarks suitable to the occasion. He said that he owed his success in life largely to Dr. James Bovell, of Toronto, who, by his kindly interest and advice, had given him the first impetus in his work, and had filled him with ambition to do something in his calling. He (the speaker) ever had a place in his heart for the people of Toronto, and always enjoyed his visits to the home of his boyhood and early manhood. Dr. Walker here stated that it was a matter for regret that the profession had not earlier notice of the doctor's intended visit, for had they known of it before they would have been in a position to present him with a token of respect more in keeping with the esteem in which all held their eminent colleague. Dr. Osler recently married a lady of rank and wealth in Philadelphia, and was in the city in the course of his wedding tour visiting his father, Dean Osler, of Wellesley street. He left last evening by the 9.20 C.P.R. express. The doctor is one of whom the citizens of Toronto and all Canadians may justly feel proud, for he has, though only 42 years of age, through his own perseverance and sterling worth, risen above all competitors to the most exalted place as regards medical research in the United States.

THE AMBITIOUS CITY.

the Oldest Resident

Come, little b Waken up an
Out of the b
Many a leaf
Of the lovely Laugh while
For the A

Ope, little b
Your milk
A light
This is the
And butte
Down in t
When th

Hide, little
Now is ne
In the d
Into the d Leaf and
And so an While th

BROKE
was a sad
He was e girl; the
when sud
Griggs
Briggs
wedding
accident

TAKING
security in ginning of
of his for glaring as it Thomas N
been "the fi
We are giv
founding-
there was no
"might have eschewed b
"It wouldn't wouldn't like
second wife,
stated to hav
respectively,
grandfather,
destined to clearly, th
equally clea
must have b Newcome fa
twins, at fir Brian is dec
ter of an hot Brian." All
and "perpetu
all that appear
Notes and Qu

Willow,
Softly s
Sing a m
While t
Gentl

Wind th
With a
Sing a l
Dream
Some

River, as Croon
Let me
With n
Even

AN IMP
ford H
Lady
ent