CUSH/17/90.2

Describe the station at Baltimore with the darkey porters and cab-men among whom there was a saying: "Fur caps and square hats to Dr. Osler's:" so that anyone wearing the peculiar derby hat of a Bostonian <sup>or the fur cap <sup>sent to</sup> the Canadian winter</sup> was always met by a smiling darkey who said: "Ah take you right to Dr. Osler's, sah."

Fur caps from Canada

Visiting always
