(Dr. H. V. Ogden)

No. 1 West Franklin Street.

Baltimore, Jan. 6th, 1894.

Dear Ogden: -

You could not possibly have overlooked that absent pulse; it was so striking. She is a long distance from an autopsy. I am sure it would be worth while to write a full article on that alcaptonuria subject. Davis would be very glad to have it, and it really is a matter of considerable importance. Let me know when it is ready and I will mention it to Davis. He is always glad, I know, to have such things.

Very glad to hear that you are bowing yourself in the house of Rimmon.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.

P. S. I may be in Chicago on the 7th of February, and if so I shall certainly go out to Milwaukee and spend an evening with you, if I can arrange it.
