

W.O., to J. George Adami.
5.14.'94.

1 West Franklin Street.

Dear Adami: 'Tis no good report I hear of thee! but as it is 'little Mary Cantlie' you are to be forgiven and congratulated. Give her my love. She may have forgotten me in ten years, but she and my niece May Francis were very chummy.

I hope you are coming down to the meeting in Washington. No heat this year! You must come to see us again on your way back.

Mrs. Osler sends kindest regards and congratulations.

Sincerely yours,
Wm. Osler.

J.G.A. There was a group of little girls in Montreal devoted to Osler. Besides Maggie Francis and Mary Cantlie - my future wife - there were Elsie Meighen (my wife's cousin, now Mrs. Robert Reford) and Helen Parker (sister of Lady Drummond). My wife often recalled their devotion to him - how he used to entertain them and how they would deposit handfuls of weary flowers at his door.
