The Johns Hopkins Hospital,
North Broadway Baltimore, May 22nd, 1894.

Dear Ogden: -

You will be surprised to hear that we are not off this week. I have had to postpone my trip until July, but we shall be able then to stay later. I have some arrears of work which it is very necessary for me to finish before leaving.

Do try and come on and spend a week this spring. Couldn't you come to the meeting next week?

By the way, have you ever been in Normandy or Brittany? We are thinking of spending the latter part of August and the first two weeks of September there.

When is that paper of yours to come out? Is it yet in Davis's hands?

Sincerely yours,
Wm. Osler.
