W.O., to J. George Adami.
Oct. 7th, 1898.

Dear Adami: I was on the point of writing to you this morning, asking if you had heard anything from Allbutt, when I received a letter from Chicago. He has fixed the 17th as the date of his visit here. I am sorry to say I shall be away, as I am going to the mountains for a couple of weeks to recuperate. We hope, however, that the Allbutts will use our house. My nephew and Welch will look after them, and they can be very comfortable and feel quite at home. I am feeling all right again, though rather used up by the attack.

Sincerely yours,
Wm. Osler.
