To John H. Musser

Dear Musser:

Thanks for your fourth edition, which looks tip-top. I have not had time yet to more than just look into one or two sections. I do not see how you have found time to keep it up so thoroughly.

I send you today a nice old copy of Sir Thomas Browne's Vulgar Errors and Urn Burial, which I picked up for you in London, and which just arrived in a case the day before yesterday. I was fortunate in getting some great treasures this summer, and have picked up two or three very nice things for the College of Physicians' Library, which I will send over as soon as a Linacre's Latin Grammar, which I left to be bound, arrives.

Sincerely yours,

Wm Osler.
