Dear Ogden:

Poor Reynolds died while I was away at the Saratoga meeting. He came here a week ago on his way north, very short of breath, with evidently an extension of his tuberculosis. He went off somewhat suddenly on Monday, just after I had left. He evidently had very extensive involvement, with a great deal of emphysema.

Sorry you were not at the Saratoga meeting. It was very pleasant. It was delightful to see Batchelor and his wife. Mrs. Batchelor has promised me to secure you a very nice wife within a year, so please have it arranged.

Give my kind regards to all at home. We are going to Murray Bay for the summer.

Sincerely yours,
W^m Osler
