

(typewriting)

Baltimore, Apr. 4, 1903.

CVS417/98.53

Dear Brown:

Thanks for the memorandum. I am paying the undertaker's bill today. The assignment of the life insurance policy has not been returned.

You must let me have your bill against him. There is no reason why you should not charge him your usual rates. I suppose there will be something coming from the life insurance.

Sincerely yours,

W Osler.