Dear Herbert:-

Thanks for your letter. We are off about the 20th of May. I think it will be delightful to settle down in Oxford, and a great part of the pleasure will be seeing all our relatives and friends who come over. We shall miss, of course, many things on this side, and I am pretty old to transplant, but I love the old country so well that it will not be difficult to shake down in my new surroundings.

The tempest in a teapot, over my remarks, has gradually subsided, and has not done any harm. We saw Norman on Sunday at Atlantic City. He is looking very well and very happy and busy in his work at Philadelphia. I send you a photograph. <sup>to</sup>

Sincerely yours,

W Osler
