208. FRANKLIN (Benjamin) M. T. Cicero's Cato Major, or his Discourse of Old-age: with explanatory Notes (Translated by W. Logan). 8vo, title printed in red and black, a tall copy in old half calf. 36 guineas.

Philadelphia, printed and sold by B. Franklin MDCCXLIV
(1744)

THE FIRST CLASSIC PRINTED IN AMERICA. It was the object of considerable care on the part of the great printer, that the execution might be worthy of the occasion. He printed it "in a large and fair character, that those who begin to think on the subject of Old Age may not in reading ... feel the Pleasure of the Mind in the least alloyed." It was his aim that by his issuing further editions of the classics "Philadelphia shall become the seat of the American Muses."
