(Letter to Edward Milburn, Esq.)
(typewritten)

June 13th, 1905.

7, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD

Dear Ned:-

Yes, I only had a day in Toronto and was half dead trying to see all my relatives and friends. I am reprinting my farewell address. I hope it will be out in October, when I will send you a copy. We got here two weeks ago and are very comfortably settled. Everything is, of course, very different, but I think I shall settle down into a quiet academic life.

With love to all at home,

Sincerely yours,

WM OSLER
