Dear D. D. O. C.,

At the meeting
of the Tutors' Club
last night, it was decided to ask you to become a member in place of Sir John Pounds-Sanderson who has retired.

The Tutors' Club is one of the oldest dining clubs in Oxford (founded in 1818).

The present members are The Warden of All Souls
The Rector of B. N. C.

Professor Drey

- Gandy

- Robinson Ellis

Mr C. W. Oman All Souls

- Raper Trinity

- Warden Fowler Lincoln

Rev L. R. Phelps Oriel

& myself.

The 12th place, vacant by the death of the Durood of Onel, has been offered to Mr. Rait 2
new coll.

The duties of members
are to keep themselves of horrible free for the Club dinner on the first Tuesday in each month (of term), &
to entertain the Club
when their turn comes round.

Do you wish see from our list of members, we are entirely a social body (neither political nor educational).

It would give all the Club great pleasure if you would join us.

Believe me

Yours sincerely

J Wells

(Sec. of Intros'
Club)
