(Letter to Edward Milburn, Esq.)
(typewritten)

November 11th, 1905.

7, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD.

Dear Ned:-

My address had only just been printed over here. I am sending you a copy to-day.

I have settled down into a quiet life here and like it very much. We are finding some difficulty in getting a suitable house, but I think we shall like everything here very much. Of course, the life is very different, but very restful after the sort of racket I have had for some years.

I am very sorry to hear of your brother. It is such a serious affection. You must have been terribly distressed about it.

Give my love to all at home.

Sincerely yours,

WM OSLER

(lockjaw -he recovered but was never the same - E.M.)
