

Nov. 26 1905

Delegate of the Press - 10 in all. Weekly meeting Friday at two o'clock, lasting long. Look up W. O's slip with notes. He had induced the Press to undertake medical publications, e.g., the Lister volumes.

Also a member of the Ratcliffe Trust.

One of the 10 Bodleian Curators - cf. the annual Perlustration of the library, a word in which he delighted.

University Oct.

Nov. 26 1905

1905

II Convocations.

(1905)

The Convocation held on Tuesday Nov. 26 the following business was submitted to the House: -

- 1. Nomination of Delegate to the University Press, William Osler D.M., Hon. D.S.C. Student of Christ Church, Reader Professor of Medicine, was nominated by the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors to be a Delegate of the University Press, in place of William Savory, D.D. Canon of Christ Church who has been constituted a Perpetual Delegate thereto. - u.c.

if hardly some man who succeeded

This added another to the stated weekly meetings for the delegates of the Press, ten in all meet Friday at two P.M. for a ~~two~~ ^{one} hour or so to be a 'long session'. What he accomplished for the Press ~~was~~ ^{was} which comes to ~~share~~ ^{share} with the Bodleian what was his chief official pleasure in Oxford was the gathering for the 'summit' upon ~~the~~ ^{the delegates} records of the ~~delegates~~ vote 6 July 1900. which says in full:

