Callie

Mela was on the boat with them of Pills. Also old Goddard's Dryden

They were driven to 7 Northam Gardens

Mela says the next Sunday (or one after?) was Wednesday. W.D. took Callie & to the structure 34. to Chel. for dinner in Hall. ^{W.D. joined the theologists} Toast table - Common room & dinner ^{denat. of snuff} ~~snuff~~ - ~~structure~~ room. The 6 W.D.'s rooms wd. he was pleased to believe had belonged to John Locke. All furniture - boxes, books, all these sat on floor began to unlace them. Wonderful evening - full moon - students singing in their rooms - remarkable occasion.

Mela says this picture later than at No 7 Northam Gardens.

Mela is wrong this was another year. Mrs. Fenwick did not come in the 16s, so it must be 1905-
