(AC. Klebs) I am delighted with the pictures [group at Louis's tomb, Montparnasse Cemetery Paris, Oct. 1905]. I wrote out my remarks, and I think it will be worth while putting them with the pictures in one of the journals.* What do you think?... I am desolated that I cannot accept your kind invitation, but it is simply impossible. I have only a few weeks, and I am full of engagements of all sorts. Please express my regrets to the committee...

[The remarks on Louis were published in Journ. Americ. Med. Ass. Chicago, 1906, 46, 1716, with reproduction of one group picture, under title of "Osler at the tomb of Louis".]
