I was so sorry not to have been able to come to the meeting last evening as I had intended, but I was unavoidably by some college business which kept me until after 6 p.m. I had a meeting to-night at Sir Douglas P~~ow~~ells but I am in the midst of feverish cold and have had to go to bed. I fear I shall not be fit for much to-morrow.

I am very sorry as I had hoped to have the pleasure of seeing you here and having ^(A.S.) Ribson and some of the younger men to meet you.
