

No. 80
(Letter to Dr. C.N.B. Camac)
(typewritten)

March 16th, 1906

7, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD.

Dear Camac:-

I saw a very good review of your booklet in the Athenaeum last week. It is satisfactory that it has gone off so well. Ramsay's books are of great value. They have been frequently reprinted and they ought not to be difficult to get. He was a charming character--a versatile, many-sided man. You know about his tragic end. I have seen a good deal of Wright's work which is most interesting, and I think along the right lines.

We have not yet settled on a house, but are busy making preliminaries.

Love to Mrs. Camac,

Sincerely yours,

WM. OSLER
