

(Typewritten)

(To Dr. T. R. Boggs)

7, Norham Gardens, Oxford.

April 13th, 1906.

Dear Boggs:

Yes, I would like the pseudo-angina cases included. I hope to send you the Gold Headed Cane before long. The copies are at the binders. You were lucky to get the big edition of Sir Thomas. Copies have become scarce.

We have to give up this house, unfortunately, July the 1st, and I hope to sail August 4th. We shall be about somewhere for July, and you could put up at any time in my rooms at Christ Church.

What an embarrassment of riches in the way of offers! I think between Boston and Chicago, you would be happier in the former place, though Favill is a trump with whom you would be very happy. Mac has, I suppose, already talked to you about some odds and ends for the System, which I hope you will be able to undertake.

Sincerely yours,

W<sup>m</sup> Osler