Dear Parfitt:-

I was very sorry not to be able to get out. I am so sorry to hear of your illness. What an aggravation, and I suppose it has cut you out of the British Medical. I found it impossible to get away on account of new house. Do let me hear how you are. Thank Mrs. Parfitt for her nice letter. I am glad she enjoyed The College Window. Send a line, please, or ask Mrs. Parfitt to write and say how you are. Do so soon. We are just off to Scotland.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,
