Mrs. M. P. Bowditch to Dr. M. P. B. from SS. Kaiser Wilhelm II, ^x May 18, 1907 - "We only stop in Plymouth, I hear, half an hour, & I suppose Dr.
Osler will be landing there tomorrow morning."

x East-bound.

I take this to mean that Dr. O. was a fellow passenger - if so, very odd that this is the only mention of him for Mrs. B. wrote ~~from~~ on the steamer every 4 to 18 pretty regularly a journal letter in which many fellow passengers are mentioned.
