

13, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

July 25th, 1907.

On July 25 he wrote Holliman White

Dear White:-

Only the other day I said to Mrs. Osler, "I suppose the Whites will be over if they can leave the chickens." I am so glad to have your letter and wish we could have you here for Sunday, but the house is full. Miss Woolley, two nieces, one with a husband, and Drs. McCrae and Boggs of the Johns Hopkins Hospital are here. I am going to Exeter on Monday to the B.M.A. I shall be in London on my way there and shall be delighted to lunch with you and Mrs. White. I have not heard anything of the Abbays this summer. We must see you here. I shall be at the Exeter meeting until Friday.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler

per N.S.

*Buya bonu / Joannis Casii July 31st 07 at Exeter
Honoris Illustris 1730 Vindictiae contra Joannem Casium*

He opened the discussion on the decision of the committee.