Sept. 24th, 1908.

(hand-written)

Dear Adami,

The more I dip into your book the better I like it. I am sure you will be gratified with its reception. I hope you have had a good summer. We went to Scotland and had a very pleasant trip in our motor. I am slipping the Academic harness for the winter - after 34 years I feel it is time to have a break and the V.C. has given me leave. I am off to Paris, Lyons, Montpellier and the Italian University towns.

I would like so much to see Francis, a McGill man - ~~adeundem~~ I have written to Petersen and Shepherd. I do not know how it is arranged or if it is possible. There were a few in the old days.

Love to L.M.C.,

Yours,

W.O.
