LUMLEIAN LECTURES

In the 24th year of Elizabeth, 1581, Dr. Richard Caldwell, a Fellow and former President of the College, in conjunction with the Lord Lumley, founded the Lumleian Lecture in Surgery, commonly called in the annals The Chirurgical Lecture, and endowed it with a rent charge of forty pounds a year on their lands and on those of their heirs for ever.

The College, on the grant of the letters patent founding this Lectureship, "did immediately decree that one hundred pounds should be forthwith taken out of their public stock to build the College rooms more ample and spacious, for the better celebration of this most solemn lecture."

A very ambitious scheme of Surgical Lectures was at first adopted an account of which may be found in Hollinshed (Chronicles, vol. iii., p. 1349); but it soon ceased to be either practicable or required. Honorarium of Lecturer, £30.
