(To Leonard L. Mackall)

FROM THE REGIUS PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE, OXFORD.

June 28, 1910.

Dear Mackall:

I am very glad indeed to hear from you, and to have the corrections and notes, which are of great interest. I send you the Baltimore address, which you should have had before.

Payne left me his [Christianismi] "Restitutio" which has become exceedingly rare.

What are you doing this summer? I think I have a duplicate copy of Williams's Bibliography of the Religio. I am still looking for the quarto Dutch edition of the collected works.

Your friend Mrs. Roy I think would find Dr. James Mackenzie of 133 Harley Street an excellent man.

I hear good word of Billy Francis, who by this time is practically cured.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler.

I am sorry not to have been with the Am. Surgeons.
