Dear Ambassador;

When in Newport a few weeks ago I had a talk with Ogden Mills about the hospital which I understand he and Mrs. Mills contemplate building in San Francisco. I sent him a brief memorandum the other day about a hospital constructed on modern lines in connection with a university. I did not gather from him whether the idea was to found a new hospital or to build special wards in connection with one of the present institutions. I gather from my medical friends on the coast that what are needed more than anything else are three or four hospital "units" on modern German lines.

Should Mrs. Reid <sup>agree</sup> with it I should be very glad indeed to talk the matter over with her, at any time.

Sincerely yours,

W<sup>m</sup> Osler

to find Mrs. Livingston
so well.
