

13, Norham Gardens, Oxford.

Dec. 1st, 10.

Dear Jacobs;-

I have not heard from you for a long while. I am sure you have been having a delightful autumn in the country.

We have been very busy, all sorts of people coming and going. I have been lecturing at Newcastle and at Cambridge. We are very interested at present in the new reforms which are under discussion. I sent a little notice about the vote on the Greek question to the New York Nation. I have had that 'Man's Redemption of Man' sermonette, which I gave on Sunday in Edinburgh, reprinted, and you will have a copy shortly. Phillips has put it in his December number.

I am sending you an interesting book by Weber on 'Aspects of Death in Art'. I am also sending a copy to the library. I have no doubt he will send a copy to Storer, to whom he refers several times.

Love to Mrs. Jacobs and all the boys.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.
(C.G.P.)

→ The limits given in Oxford.
(cf. address book)