

CUS 417/111, 11

(Dr. J. A. Nixon, Bristol, Eng)

13, Norham Gardens, Oxford.

Jan. 25th, 1911.

Dear Nixon:

Alas for the vice of procrastination! I should have come to you in the vacation, now I am off to Egypt (next week), and we will have to postpone our historical evening towards the end of March. Don't cast me off, because I should like nothing better than to come. I have a chance to join my brother for a month on the Nile, which seems too good an offer to refuse.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler.