Dear Campbell:

It is nice to hear you had a good time in Chicago; we shall look for you sometime in the summer. Let me know when you get to Berlin as it is quite possible I might steal a week there with you, though I am usually very much tied up here through July. I have had a very busy month since I got back, on the road a great deal, and very much in London. Jared keeps so wonderfully well. Harry has been up here for his matriculation.

I wish I could get out to McGill for the opening, but June is an impossible month - full of examinations. Revere goes back to school today. He did not get much fishing these holidays. He and Grace went to Tenby for deep-sea fishing, but it was too rough.

I am rewriting sections of the Text-book, and hope to get it ready for the Press by the end of the year. - Notes please! Corrections please!
Suggestions / I am sure you must have had a pretty good winter; a fine experience for you in any case.

Ever yours,

W. Osler.
