Dear Jacobs;

We shall miss you at Rome, but I can readily understand your reluctance to leave Mrs. Jacobs. I shall come thro. from Rome on Friday night (19th), so please secure me a bed-room at the Beau-Séjour for a few days. I will look up Bushnell & will try to hear his paper, the title of which sounds interesting. We are having glorious weather here. I have just come in from Padua having had a day's prowling about the Univ.

Love to Mrs. Jacobs,

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.
