Dear Garrison,

Many thanks for the Historical Texts reprint which arrived last evening. I would like another copy, as I would mark one of them and send it to the German bookseller who is looking out historical works for me.

The Bristol people will have sent you the notice of the dear old man. It was brief, but they have made a nice little reprint with his paper.

McCaw's idea of printing the incunabula at the end of the Index Catalogue is admirable.

With best wishes for 1913.

Sincerely yours,

Wm. Osler.
