

(Dr. A. J. Nixon, Bristol)

From the Regius Professor of Medicine, Oxford.

27th Jan. 1913.

Dear Nixon:

I was very much obliged for the extra copy of the Fletcher memorial. I wrote to the Editor thanking him for the first one.

[The man in the Bristol Medical Journal to Dr.] with automobile club

Will you dine with me on Wednesday evening after the meeting? [of the Historical Socy. in a room]
You could get away in time for a late train.

[Thomas Dover food facts]

Do you know anything about Mr. Robert Dover's "Olimpick Games upon the Cotswold Hills"? I see on sale at Sotheby's on February 4th "Annalia du Dubrensis" written by Drayton, Johnson, etc., 1st Ed. Colyer-Fergusson was dining with me last night, and was much interested in it and hopes to buy it.

[Prof. Max Müller saw in Lew and a description of Dover]

[Dinner in Christ Church]
What about the tabloid to T. D.?

Sincerely yours,

W Osler.

(Note: Robert Dover was Thomas Dover's grandfather.)
