W.O. to J. George Adami.
11th February, 1913.

(typewritten)

Dear Adami,

It certainly could do no harm to write to Grey, with whom I had a frank talk when he was staying with me last summer. I shall take an opportunity of talking with Harcourt privately, so as, if possible, to get it arranged for Dominion Day. I suggested to Grey that Lachapelle should go in at the same time. It would be very proper, as he is a fine fellow, and it would please the French Canadians.

All well here. I hope to see you all in May.

Sincerely yours,

W.O.
