

Oxford, 2nd April 1913

CUS417/115.75

(A.C. Klebs)...At last ~~Maltby~~ [book binder] has returned your books [Religio Medici, Observations of Sir Kenelm Digby, Religio Jurisconsulti, Hudibras 1st part, ^{all} first editions], and I send them to-day. The Religios are little gems, and I am very glad of my share of the booty [with H.B. Jacobs in a Geneva bookstore]. I got Lord Herbert's 'Religio' the other day. My Leyden books came yesterday - a very good set, the original edition of Descartes is splendid. ..Possibly you might do best to begin in Washington and work at the Library; it is a delightful place to live in..... I am off on Saturday...