Dear Leonard:

I am sending you herewith a typewritten copy (proof read by me) of the article "Cardinal vs. Baronet" in the Morning Sun of April 19, 1913. If it is not what you want, let me know and I will have a photostat made of the whole issue if necessary. I thought you wanted just the gist of the thing, and the volume is so confounded enormous that I shirked the difficulties in the way of having it transported to the photostat establishment. If there is any particular sentence that you want to quote, I will verify it for you to the jots and tittles.

As ever,

Lawrence Wroth.
