Dear Stokes,

Thanks for your day letter giving the arrangements. I shall leave on Tuesday, the twenty-ninth, as I have arranged to lecture on the Oxford University Press at Cambridge in the evening. Would it be possible to miss the lecture on Friday, the 25th and have it on Saturday, the 26th, instead? I should like to go to the Billings Memorial services at New York that afternoon. I am looking forward with such pleasure to my visit.

Sincerely,

(Signed)
