(Yesterday when going over some papers in my desk I came across a little note from Sir William Osler, a copy of which I am sending you herewith. This was written by him in answer to my inquiries as to where to send him the cheque to cover his fee for delivering the Silliman Lectures, and refers to his belief in the value of these when published in book form. G.P.Day, Feb. 1, 1921).

New Haven, Connecticut,

April ^{22nd} (12) (1913)

Dear Day:

Make out and send that cheque please to Dominion Bank, Head Office, Toronto, for deposit my account. Call me a Prophet of Baal if you do not get most of it back in the next three years! Thanks for your kindness.

Yours,

W. ~~my~~ Osler
