OUR GUEST

"For my Religion, though there be several Circumstances that might perswade the world I have none at all (as the general scandall of my Profession, the natural course of my Studies, the indifferency of my Behaviour and Discourse in matters of Religion, neither violently De—fending one, nor with that common ardour and contention Opposing another;) yet in despight hereof, I dare without usurpation assume the honourable Stile of a Christian."
