(A.C. Klebs) ...I am delighted with Garrison's notice of your father [Edwin Klebs, died 23. Oct. 1913], which I sent ~~out~~ on at once to the Lancet. I had intended to do it myself, but you know how it is when you are hard pressed and I have been on the jump for the past six weeks!.....Many thanks for your note about Annemasse [in Savoy near Geneva, Servetus monument]. You might mention it to Garrison. I will put your slip in my Servetus pamphlet for correction. I wish I had known about Sudhoff's birthday. I will write to him. Avicenna's tomb is a great resort of pilgrims & is a fine big mausoleum....
