FROM THE REGIUS PROFESSOR OF MEDICINE, OXFORD.

4, September, 1914.

Dear W. S.,

Thanks for the delightful notice of Rupert Norton - just what one would like!

Things are looking very blue for poor old France, but the position to-day is very different to that of 1870, and we are all confident here that in the long run the Allies will come out on top.

Love to Sister Susan.

Sincerely yours,

W^m Osler

(handwriting) Spirit here = splendid. What a cursed act of vandalism to destroy Louvain!
