

From Dr. Malloch's Journal.
Monday, Nov. 15, 1915.

Bibliog. Soc. and met W.O. there. Paper on Lyons. Arrived Ox. 7.30 - saw damage by fire to the dining-room - a narrow shave.

HC { Apparently, aside from the plaque, there were few things of value destroyed, certainly none of the books. I find in the back of one of the MS volumes Liber D. Grimani Cardinalis S. Marci. the following note:- "This MS has come back from Maltby with the old binding repaired. I left it with another in the dining-room, and both were badly scorched in the fire Nov. 1915 - the only two of value damaged. The old parchment covers were curled and baked". W.O. MS.

^{a collector}
Mr. Wise at Hampstead. ^{Mawellan collect.}
W.O. & Revue-went on the morning of fire
The morning after the fire leaving
S.P.O. to collect & measure paper