

(Letter to Howard A. Kelly)
Handwriting)

13, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD.

Printed May

1st. 1916

Dear Howard A.

So glad you are to have a rest. What a stirring life you have had! The wonder is that your machinery has held out as well. I saw a report of the meeting & wrote to B. Randall. It is nice to think that the Historical Club has been such a success. It was really our baby. I am glad to hear that the radium work prospers.

All well here - & very hopeful, in spite of the politicians & lawyers. I am on the road a great deal. Revere was at home for a month, after a year in France with the McGill Unit. He is now in the Royal Field Artillery in the camp near Newcastle. He has developed into a most satisfactory laddie, devoted to books & to literature, & with a good human heart. Grace is working ^{like} with a galley slave - bossing a big shop in one of the laboratories. My library grows.

Love to Miss Kelly & the children from us both

Ever yours

Wm. Osler