Oxford, 6th, December 1916.

Dr. Foote,
1849 Mintwood Place, N. W.,
Washington, D. C., U. S. A.

I see you have read a paper on Lancisi, a man in whom I am much interested. Send me please a copy if it is printed. Put at the end a bibliography - the S. G. L. should have nearly everything and there is an old printed catalogue of the Lancisi Library of Rome. He was a great old man and I am glad to see your interest in him.

Wm. Osler.

As Dr. Osler had probably seen an announcement somewhere that this paper was scheduled for a meeting of the Johns Hopkins Historical Society, he inferred that it had been read. It was not printed until some time afterward when it appeared in Volume II, Series 27, International Clinics. A latter stating that the paper had not been read, that it would be printed and a copy sent as requested was sent to Dr. Osler and elicited the following reply:
