

CUS417/123.109

To Sir John MacAlister.

13, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

9. 15 p.m. 1917.

June

Letter Script.

Dear MacAlister,

Too bad! I find your wire on my return from Town this eve. My wife tried to catch me at the Club but I had gone. Exams are on and I cannot get away until Friday perhaps not then; but I should like to hear Macphail on the Vimy fight at the W. L. Med. Chir. Soc. I will let you know. Could you not take a day off and spend a peaceful night? I am free except for the starting the exams each day and signing the sheets in the eve.

Yours sincerely,

Wm. Osler.