22nd July 1917.
13, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

Dear Ballinger,

The time table seems all right. I suppose it would be safe to come through from Oxford on the ~~Thursday~~^{Monday} there is a through carriage in the 11.20 which must get in by 6 p.m. I shall stay Tuesday, Thursday, and should like to have a chance to meet several men who are interested in the Celtic Board of Studies scheme and the University Press.

Yours Sincerely,

(Signed) William Osler.

Excuse delay but I only got back this morning.
