Dearest Gwen

Thanks for your kind sympathy. It is a terrible loss but we must take it bravely. Dear laddie! he was so devoted to his home & to his old dad. We were such chums, & had so many interests in common.

Do not work too hard at your job.

About the mor(t)gages. Is it possible to clear them off at once? Did you ever cash that cheque for one of them? $900 was it not. Send me definite details again I have mislaid the letter in which you gave them It would be a great matter to have the house free. Perhaps the holder would release the big mor(t)gage for a $100 bonus Let me know soon.

Love to the darlings

Your loving old

Doctor
