

From Dr. Malloch's Journal
Sunday, Jan. 20, 1918.

Sir Wm. still in bed - he is quite keen about Jas Gregory and John Bell now. Mrs. Chapin says that when the news came by 'phone that Revere had died, W.O. said "I knew from the beginning of the war that this moment would come."

Always used to be saying what is yet to come. When got mess sent of Revere in Aug 1917
It was sort of expression feeling that his turn would come - had had more than his share
