

13, Norham Gardens,
Oxford.

17. 4. 18.

Letter (Script)

Dear Archie,

Thanks for Cabanes but you should have opened the parcel and cut the leaves. The illustrations are A.I. Sir D. MacAlister, Principal of Glasgow University was here last week, and picked up your book, with which he was delighted one of the most interesting stories he read for years. He was much gratified to hear of your Glasgow affiliations. Have you heard anything of the Occupation paper? All here much disturbed by the news, but all will come out on the right side I am sure. It is disheartening, of course. Catalogue is booming — the anaesthesia section doing well, and will be A.A.I.

I am picking out a lot of Reveres' books for you and Bill. Call on Phoebe and ask her if she will please be married from the "open arms"?

Yours,
W. O.

Sir John looks a bit grey and myocardial.

Gibson or uncle Jackson