

London

4 June 1918.

Dear Sir William,

I called in at Berthel's in Museum Street yesterday afternoon to look at the portrait of Jenner about which you wrote to me on the 16th ult. In my opinion it is a very poor piece of work; the figure is out of drawing and proportion. I do not think it can possibly have been the original oil painting by Smith. The face is not in any way like Jenner's, and I could find no trace of authenticity about it. I am sorry I have not been able to let you know sooner.

Faithfully yours,

C. J. Thompson.

Dear Jacobs;

Here is T.'s letter about the Jenner picture.

Love to you all.
